

Academic Associate, Educational Studies Program – Pool Position #17097

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Leadership and Innovation invites applications to establish a pool for Educational Studies Academic Associates for the 2021-2022 academic year. The successful candidates(s) will teach in-person and/or online courses, prepare course materials, evaluate student work, and assist students. The Educational Studies program welcomes applications from candidates who can bring diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc.

Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement

Academic Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Academic Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

The position includes teaching during class times (for in-person and synchronous courses), grading, managing the course's Canvas (learning management system) page, and establishing warm and supportive relationships with students through class, office hours, emails, and meetings, as needed.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Education, Social, Cultural and Behavioral Science, Humanities, or a field that promotes innovation, learning, and change (e.g., Business, Engineering).
- 3+ years of teaching, mentoring, coaching, or related experience working with learners of any age (Birth-adult)
- Experience using course management systems (e.g., Canvas, Blackboard), video conferencing tools (e.g., Zoom, Microsoft Teams), and other digital learning tools.

Desired Qualifications:

- Terminal Degree related to Education, Social, Cultural and Behavioral Science, Humanities, Business, or a field that
- promotes innovation, learning, and change (e.g., Business, Engineering).
- Experience working collaboratively in a team environment
- Experience planning and/or implementing curriculum (in any learning context)
- Experience teaching at the university-level post-secondary or other adult education setting
- Experience facilitating learning (e.g., coursework, professional development, trainings) for diverse learner populations
- Experience facilitating adult learning
- Experience working in collaborative environments within and across disciplines
- Experience teaching in digital environments

About the College

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education.
