

Faculty Associate, Learning Design and Technologies Program – Pool Position #17106

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Leadership and Innovation invites applications to establish a pool for Learning Design and Technologies Faculty Associates for the 2021-2022 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will teach online courses, evaluate student work, and assist students. The Learning Design and Technologies program welcomes applications from candidates who can bring diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc.

Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement

Faculty Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Faculty Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

The position includes online teaching, grading, managing the course's Canvas (learning management system) page, and establishing warm and supportive relationships with students through class, office hours, emails, and meetings, as needed.

Required Qualifications:

- Terminal degree in educational technology, instructional technology, instructional design, or related field

Desired Qualifications:

- 3+ years of teaching or related experience in learning design, educational technology, instructional design, or related field
- Experience teaching in an online learning environment
- Experience working collaboratively in a team environment
