Job Description
Under general direction, identifies funding sources, provides grant writing support, and facilitates proposal development. Designs, creates, and maintains research and grant writing tools for the College. Works with faculty and staff in the design, content, and preparation of sponsored project proposals in accordance with sponsor standards and requirements. Participates in writing narrative sections and edits narrative drafts, particularly those that require technical expertise and awareness of education trends and issues. Assists with graphic selection and proposal layout. Works closely and in conjunction with leadership and staff to support strategic initiatives.

This position has been posted on the Tempe campus; however, it could be relocated to the West campus to meet the needs of the college and/or the candidate.

Essential Duties
- Prepare narrative templates and technical crosswalks in compliance with sponsor guidelines.
- Provides consultation services on strategies, tactics, tools, and best practices for the development of grants for submission, as requested.
- Assists faculty in preparing proposal narratives and documents in compliance with University, sponsor, and federal guidelines and deadlines.
- Edit staff and faculty proposal narratives following sponsor guidelines, prescribed stylistic conventions (commonly APA Style), and formatting.
- Manage grant-related data systems to include tracking and reporting pre-award sponsored project activity; inform team leads of irregularities, and proceed with corrective action.
- Research, monitor, qualify, capture, and disseminate funding opportunities from various agencies (federal, state, NGO, and philanthropic).
- Research and report on education-related funding landscapes to include sponsor and/or program funding allocations, award history, awardee profiles, and other data.
- Analyze feedback received from grant proposal reviewers and create reports for staff and faculty based on an established protocol.
- Coordinate with staff and faculty to gather college- and university-level data for grant applications; research and analyze large amounts of information from internal and external sources.
- Co-develop and co-facilitate grant-related presentations and workshops.
- May supervise, lead, train, and monitor the activities of assigned staff.
- Other duties as assigned.
Minimum Qualifications
Bachelor's degree in a field appropriate to the area of assignment AND five (5) years of related experience; OR, Nine (9) years of related experience; OR, Any equivalent combination of experience and/or education from which comparable knowledge, skills and abilities have been achieved.

Desired Qualifications
- Evidence of effective verbal and written communication skills.
- Evidence of skills in critical thinking and problem-solving.
- Experience working both independently and as part of a team, exercising a high degree of initiative.
- Experience in successfully working effectively and cooperatively with an ethnically and culturally diverse population.
- Experience in using Microsoft: Word, Excel, Access, OneNote, and Teams
- Experience in interpreting and adhering to sponsor regulations and proposal guidelines.
- Demonstrated knowledge of contemporary writing styles used in preparing grant/proposals.
- Experience in managing and meeting deadlines for multiple and concurrent projects.

Working Environment
Activities are primarily performed in a regular, climate-controlled office setting subject to extended periods of sitting, standing, walking; visual acuity and manual dexterity associated with daily use of desktop computer; bending, stooping, reaching and lifting up to 20 pounds; ability to clearly communicate verbally in English, read, write, see, and hear to perform essential duties; regular review of completed tasks.
