Concurrent Degree Checklist

General rules for students pursuing concurrent degrees in the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College

- Student must be in good academic standing and have completed one semester of course work at ASU (note: the department in which you are pursuing a concurrent degree(s) may have additional academic requirements).
- If you enroll in a course that is cross-listed between your concurrent major departments, make sure to register for the course under the prefix of the appropriate major department for which you are seeking credit to fulfill concurrent degree requirements.
- Some colleges require that both concurrent degrees follow the same catalog year. Consult with an advisor in the colleges for the concurrent degrees you are pursuing for details.

Procedures

- Contact your academic advisor to declare each concurrent degree you will be pursuing. This information is important to the department’s record keeping and it may affect your recommended courses.
- Fill out the Concurrent Degree Notification petition and submit to the Office of Student Services at your respective Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College Campus.
- If one of your degrees is in another college, contact that college and complete the required petition for requesting/pursuing concurrent degrees.
- If one of your degrees is in another college, contact that college and complete the required petition for requesting/pursuing concurrent degrees. Notify the college(s) in writing/email if you decide not to pursue concurrent degrees.
