

Academic Associate, Leadership and Innovation, Ed.D. – Pool Position #16849

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) has the mission of creating knowledge, mobilizing people and fostering actions that improve education. Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement.

Our core values align with ASU's charter and design imperatives most importantly those related to: justice, equity, diversity and inclusion (JEDI). We are also inspired by our framework for Principled Innovation, the ability to imagine new concepts, catalyze ideas, and form new solutions, guided by principles that create positive change for humanity.

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) invites applications for Academic Associates. The Leadership and Innovation program seeks to establish a teaching pool for Ed.D. academic associates for the 2021-2022 academic year, specifically to serve as co-teacher, discussion leader, and grader.

Academic Associate positions are one semester at a time (either 7.5- or 15-week courses), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Academic Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who were not hired are encouraged to reapply.

The successful candidate(s) will co-teach online courses under the leadership of a lead instructor. Co-teaching may include, but is not limited to leading and/or moderating discussion groups, holding office hours, assisting students, and evaluating student work.

Required Qualifications:

- A doctorate from an accredited institution in Education or a related field such as Higher Education, Educational Leadership, Curriculum & Instruction, Educational Technology, Educational Research
- One semester teaching or other pedagogical experience in any educational or related field

- Demonstrated expertise and experience in higher education, PK-12 educational leadership, and/or leadership in formal and informal educational context outside of schools
- Experience in global or international education

About the College

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leading innovator in teacher education and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College prepares over 7,600 educators annually. MLFTC faculty create knowledge by drawing from a wide range of academic disciplines to gain insight into important questions about the process of learning, the practice of teaching, and the effects of education policy. MLFTC mobilizes people through bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs, through non-degree professional development programs, and through socially embedded, multilateral community engagement. MLFTC takes action by bringing people and ideas together to increase the capabilities of individual educators and the performance of education systems. MLFTC is committed to ensuring that the fundamental commitment to advancing system equity, inclusion, and justice is enacted in our curricula, programming, and relationships. Our ultimate goal is to help us imagine possibilities for creating sustainable cultures in our college and with our global communes that are reflective of a deep commitment to inclusion, systemic equity, and justice.
