Clinical Assistant Professor Job #12444

We are seeking a full-time Clinical Assistant Professor with specializations in early childhood education and special education. This is a benefits-eligible academic year position beginning July 23, 2018. This is a fixed-term appointment with no tenure implications.

Major responsibilities include: (1) supervising and supporting teacher candidates in their internship and/or senior year residency; (2) serving as a liaison to school district(s); (3) teaching undergraduate education courses; (4) collaborating with district and school-based administration to identify highly effective mentor teachers; (5) facilitating professional development with mentor teachers; (6) coaching and evaluating teacher candidates’ instructional and professional competencies; and (7) utilizing program data to improve teacher candidate performance and program outcomes.

Required Qualifications:
- Master’s degree in education from an accredited university
- Experience instructing courses in a higher education institution or equivalent experiences teaching adults
- Minimum of 3 years of successful teaching experience in an early childhood/special education setting
- Expertise in using classroom assessments and student achievement data to inform instruction
- Demonstrated experience in coaching pre-service or in-service teachers
- Strong communication skills with an ability to foster positive, productive working relationships with teacher candidates, Mentor Teachers, ASU faculty and staff, and school/district personnel
- Strong collaboration skills, openness to team based solutions, and flexible to address the complex needs within teacher education

Desired Qualifications:
- Experience with infants, toddlers, and/or preschoolers
- Experience working with families
- Demonstrated commitment to the learning of ALL students and an expressed commitment to teacher candidates
- Demonstrated use of technology infusion in teaching and professional development
- Participation and collaboration with school-based initiatives
- Demonstrated content expertise in specific academic areas defined by the InTASC, NAEYC, and CEC Model Core Teaching standards
- Earned doctorate in early childhood/elementary/special education or closely related field from an accredited university
- Familiarity with TAP Rubric and CLASS for clinical evaluation
- Demonstrated knowledge of co-teaching

About the College and University
Arizona State University’s Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leading innovator in teacher education and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College prepares over 1,500 educators annually through bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degree programs. Working with a mindset of creative intrapreneurship to bring positive change within organizations, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College brings people and ideas together to improve student outcomes. We seek to develop a renewable resourcefulness in individual educators, in schools, in school districts and in communities. In line with the charter and design principles of Arizona State University, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College asserts the following four core values:
- Pursue excellence at scale to achieve impact
- Exercise leadership through innovation
Champion diversity of people and ideas
Share responsibility for the strength of communities

Arizona State University is Carnegie classified as a doctoral university of highest research activity, a respected research institution in the Pac-12 Conference, and is developing a new model of an American research university: one that measures its academic quality by the education its graduates receive; one at which researchers, while pursuing their scholarly interests, and also consider the public good; and one in which faculty expand the concept of community service by accepting major responsibility for the health, economic, and social development of their communities.

Application Deadline and Procedures
The initial application deadline is June 28, 2018; if not filled, applications will be reviewed on a rolling deadline every two weeks thereafter until the search is closed. The appointment will begin July 23, 2018. Only electronic applications will be reviewed. To submit your application, please visit apply.interfolio.com/51604.

Questions regarding this position may be emailed to Nicole Thompson nlthompson@asu.edu.

Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law. For a complete statement of ASU’s non-discrimination policy, refer to http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html and https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/.