Our high-quality learning experiences support the education of the local, national, and international communities served by ASU.

Essential Duties

- Partner with digital learning team members to develop digital learning materials using instructional design principles.
- Lead the provision and configuration of courses during the course deployment process.
- Participate in the quality assurance process for courses and learning materials.
- Edit instructional and supporting materials for grammar, clarity, consistency, and accuracy of the content.
- Work both independently and interdependently within a team-based model to produce desired outcomes.
- Engage as assigned in special projects and professional development initiatives individually or with colleagues.

Minimum Qualifications

Bachelor’s degree in Educational Technology or a related field AND one year of experience providing educational technology development services; OR, Any equivalent combination of education and/or experience from which comparable knowledge, skills and abilities have been achieved.

Desired Qualifications

- Demonstrated experience working in Canvas/LMS environments to develop online materials.
- Demonstrated experience developing learning materials, including job aids, online tutorials, and other instructional or learning materials using online pedagogical approaches, practices, and tools.
- Demonstrated experience exploring, evaluating, and experimenting with new learning techniques and technologies and seizing new opportunities for enhancing learning.
- Demonstrated experience working closely with faculty and administrators in a higher education environment.
- Demonstrated experience managing multiple projects and prioritizing competing demands to meet established timelines.

Working Environment
Activities are primarily performed in a regular, climate-controlled office setting subject to extended periods of sitting, standing, walking; visual acuity and manual dexterity associated with daily use of desktop computer; bending, stooping, reaching and lifting up to 20 pounds; ability to clearly communicate verbally in English, read, write, see, and hear to perform essential duties; regular review of completed tasks.
