

Faculty Associate, (PAC Program/Physical Activity Courses) Pool Position #114416

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Teacher Preparation invites applications to establish a pool for Faculty Associates in Physical Education for the 2023-2024 academic year. The successful candidates(s) will teach in-person Physical Activity courses, prepare course materials, evaluate student work, and assist students. The Physical Education program welcomes applications from candidates who can bring diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc.

Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement

Faculty Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Faculty Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

The position serves as a lead instructor and includes teaching undergraduate level activity-based courses in the Physical Education program; demonstrated knowledge of current philosophies, practices, and research in the activity's subtopic; instructing activity-based courses in areas that match the courses inherent location such as an on campus outside field, basketball court, indoor classroom or the like.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Education or related field at the time of appointment depending on the subtopic of the course(s)
- Experience developing and administering at least two professional development or instructional activities related to activity-based subtopics such as wellness, nutrition, sport, or lifetime activities such as mind and body (yoga, Pilates), fitness (TRX, strength training, aerobic modalities), hiking, etc.

Desired Qualifications:

- Doctoral Degree in Education, or related field at the time of appointment depending on the subtopic of the course(s)
- At least one year of related experience/ education specific to the subtopic such as wellness, nutrition, sport, or lifetime activities
- At least one experience working collaboratively in a team environment
- At least one semester experience using course management systems such as Canvas or Blackboard
