Clinical Associate Professor, Graduate Teacher Preparation

Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College
Division of Teacher Preparation

ASU’s Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Teacher Preparation invite applications for a Clinical Associate Professor in graduate teacher preparation. The position includes teaching in a variety of environments, which may include classroom, community/professional experiences, or distance/online, creating course content, providing feedback on student work/assignments, managing course materials in Canvas (learning management system), establishing supportive relationships with students, and service to the college. The graduate teacher preparation program welcomes applications from candidates who can bring a diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc. The successful candidate will also advance ASU’s Design Aspirations through teaching and service and effectively work with culturally, ethnically, and linguistically diverse populations.

Essential Duties:
- Delivering instruction, a variety of environments, which may include classroom, community/professional experiences, or distance/online, providing timely and actionable feedback on student assignments, managing course materials in Canvas (learning management system for the college), and utilizing technology tools to support student engagement (e.g., Zoom, Slack, Yellowdig).
- Establishing and maintaining warm and responsive relationships with students through facilitating course experiences and when engaging with students via office hours, emails, and meetings.
- Providing leadership in teaching through mentorship, curriculum design and development, and
- Collaborating with colleagues and other professionals to ensure effective instruction for students throughout their program
- Developing course curricula and content and curating course materials aligned with program-level outcomes.
- Providing program leadership related to teacher preparation, clinical experience, or a related area
- Providing service to the program, division, college, and/or university through a variety of mechanisms, such as acting as a course coordinator in charge of collaborating with full-time and part-time faculty, related to teacher preparation workforce needs, serving on a college or university committee, or other related service activities.

Required Qualifications:
- Earned Ph.D. or Ed.D. in curriculum and instruction, teacher preparation or a closely related field (degree must be awarded by the start date)
- 5+ years of teaching or working with PK-12th grade age children or youth
- 5+ years of teaching and/or clinical supervision in teacher preparation or closely related content at community college, university-level post-secondary, or other adult education settings.
- 5+ years of experience leading strategic K-12 and higher education partnerships.

Desired Qualifications:
- Engagement in service to the profession for example through publications, presentations at local, national or international education conferences; editorial service.
- Engagement in teacher preparation professional organizations.
- Experience in leadership of a teacher preparation program.
- Evidence of course/curriculum development of teacher preparation content for community college, university-level post-secondary, or other adult education settings.
About the College
ASU’s Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leading innovator in teacher education and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College prepares over 7,600 educators annually. MLFTC faculty create knowledge by drawing from a wide range of academic disciplines to gain insight into important questions about the process of learning, the practice of teaching, and the effects of education policy. MLFTC mobilizes people through bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs, non-degree professional development programs, and socially embedded, multilateral community engagement. MLFTC takes action by bringing people and ideas together to increase the capabilities of individual educators and the performance of education systems. MLFTC is committed to ensuring that the fundamental commitment to advancing system equity, inclusion, and justice is enacted in our curricula, programming, and relationships. Our ultimate goal is to help us imagine possibilities for creating sustainable cultures in our college and with our global communes that is reflective of a deep commitment to inclusion, systemic equity, and justice.

For more information about the College, please visit our website at http://education.asu.edu/.

Application Deadline and Procedures
The application deadline is May 26, 2023. Applications will continue to be accepted on a rolling basis for a reserve pool. Applications in the reserve pool may then be reviewed in the order in which they were received until the position is filled. Only electronic applications will be reviewed.

To apply, submit the following:
- Letter of application/interest
- Curriculum vitae
- Contact information for three professional references

Apply Now: http://apply.interfolio.com/125640

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement
A background check is required for employment. Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law.

(See https://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html and https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/.)

In compliance with federal law, ASU prepares an annual report on campus security and fire safety programs and resources. ASU’s Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is available online at https://www.asu.edu/police/PDFs/ASU-Clergy-Report.pdf You may request a hard copy of the report by contacting the ASU Police Department at 480-965-3456.

COVID-19 Vaccination - Arizona State University is a federal contractor and subject to federal regulations which may require you to produce a record of a COVID-19 vaccination. For questions about medical or religious accommodations, please visit the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion’s webpage.