

Academic Associate, Special Education (Applied Behavior Analysis) Program Pool Position #141003

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Educational Leadership and Innovation invites applications to establish a pool for Academic Associates in the Special Education (Applied Behavior Analysis) Program for the 2024-2025 academic year. Successful candidates will co-teach online courses under the direction of Program faculty, evaluate student work, and assist students with mastery of course and Program objectives. The Special Education (Applied Behavior Analysis) program welcomes applications from candidates who align with ASU's charter and are committed to inclusive excellence and student success. The successful candidate will also advance ASU's Design Aspirations through teaching and service.

ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.

Successful candidates will demonstrate throughout their materials how their work will contribute to the fulfillment of this charter.

Academic Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Academic Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

This position includes co-teaching online, under the leadership of a lead instructor, reviewing student assignments, providing constructive feedback, grading, meeting synchronously (via Zoom) with students individually or in small groups as needed, responding to student inquiries (within 24 hours, 7 days a week), remain in ongoing communication with lead instructor and instructional team through the course, and maintaining a positive and supportive environment.

About the College

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leader in teacher preparation, leadership development and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College prepares over 8,000 educators annually.
