Job Description
Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College seeks a business process analyst to join a dynamic team working at the forefront of digital learning. In this role, the business analyst will work closely with team members and stakeholders to design, carry out, and continually improve business processes and infrastructure for managing the team’s project portfolio and operations, serving as a driving force for the focus and success of our team. A successful candidate will be excited about the opportunity to participate in a variety of projects, collaborate with others on operational improvement initiatives and work flexibly to adapt to circumstances as project goals, priorities, needs and expectations emerge. Above all, this person will be eager to engage with colleagues to advance progress as an individual contributor and team collaborator.

ASU and MLFTC are focused on the design and scalable delivery of digital teaching and learning models to increase student success and reduce barriers to achievement in higher education. Our high-quality learning experiences support the education of the local, national, and international communities served by ASU.

Essential Duties
- Design and continually improve business processes and infrastructure for managing the team’s operations and project portfolio.
- Oversee the team’s project portfolio and manage multiple, sometimes ambiguous or emerging projects and see them through from initial conception to implementation and evaluation; Adapt to circumstances and allow flexibility in processes.
- Work closely and collaboratively with key stakeholders to understand a business problem or opportunity and help develop an effective solution, define project scope, strategy, and outcomes.
- Manage projects by documenting requirements, preparing and maintaining implementation plans, setting expectations with the team, managing project issues and ensuring project tasks are completed.
- Apply business process analysis and project management methods, standards and processes to maximize the value delivered by our team on project and to stakeholders
- Coach team members both internal and contracted to ensure optimal outcomes; Build and maintain effective relationships vital to success while communicating a positive attitude.
- Writes business process documentation to communicate how a business process should function in its current state or its future state.
- Evaluate and assess how well delivered solutions fulfill the requirements and meet the business need.
Minimum Qualifications

Bachelor's degree AND two (2) years of experience in procedural, management or systems analysis work; OR, Six (6) years of experience in procedural, management, or systems analysis work; OR, Any equivalent combination of experience, training and/or education from which comparable knowledge, skills and abilities have been achieved.

Desired Qualifications

- Experience developing and improving business processes, systems, and strategies with the goal of optimizing an organization’s operations and value to stakeholders.
- Strong knowledge of project management principles, change management practices, and techniques needed for managing projects.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills, in particular with respect to explaining concrete processes and abstract concepts, and the ability to effectively facilitate working sessions.
- Demonstrated expertise with project management software such as Jira and Airtable.
- Certification as a Project Management Professional (PMP) or PMI Professional in Business Analysis (PMI-PBA).
- Ability to perform effectively as a member of a team.
