

Faculty Associate & Student Supervisor,
Elementary & Secondary Education, Early Childhood & Special Education
Pool Position #93741

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Teacher Preparation invites applications to establish a pool for Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Early Childhood and Special Education Faculty Associates for the 2022-2023 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will teach asynchronously, evaluate student work, supervise interns, student residents, and/or apprentice teachers in their field-based course and assist students in their development as teaching professionals. The Elementary, Secondary, Early Childhood, and Special Education Teacher Education programs welcome applications from candidates who can bring diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc.

Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement.
