

Faculty Associate, Higher & Postsecondary Education program – Pool Position #94330

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College (MLFTC) and the Division of Education Leadership & Innovation invites applications to establish a pool for Higher & Postsecondary Education program Faculty Associates for the 2022-2023 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will teach in-person, hybrid, or online courses, prepare course materials, manage/maintain assigned course's Canvas (learning management system), and establish warm and supportive relationships with students through class, office hours, emails, and one-on-one meetings. The Higher & Postsecondary Education program welcomes applications from candidates who can bring diversity of thought from their personal experiences with race, ability, gender, language, etc.

Our programs bring people and ideas together to increase the innovation capabilities of individual educators, schools and organizations, districts and communities. MLFTC is building the Next Education Workforce which starts with the conviction that, if we're not getting the workforce or the learning outcomes we want, we need to redesign the profession, the workplace and how we prepare people for both. As such, the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College, partners with schools and organizations to:

1. Provide all students with deeper and personalized learning by building teams of educators with distributed expertise; and
2. Empower educators by developing new opportunities for role-based specialization and advancement

Faculty Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Faculty Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

The position includes teaching during class times (for synchronous courses), grading, managing the course's Canvas (learning management system) page, and establishing warm and supportive relationships with students through class, office hours, emails, and meetings, as needed.

Required Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in Higher Education, or doctoral degree in related field with a major/specialization in Higher Education and/or Student Affairs
- Three or more years of instructional experience with relevant courses or content at the university level
- Five or more years of full-time professional work experience in a postsecondary setting and/or adjacent professional setting
- Experience and/or expertise related to issues of diversity, equity, inclusion and social justice

Desired Qualifications:

- One or more years of experience using learning management systems such as Canvas or Blackboard and digital tools like Zoom
- Late afternoon and/or evening availability

About the College

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leading innovator in teacher education and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College prepares over 7,600 educators annually. MLFTC faculty create knowledge by drawing from a wide range of academic disciplines to gain insight into important questions about the process of learning, the practice of teaching, and the effects of education policy. MLFTC mobilizes people through bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs, through non-degree professional development programs, and through socially embedded, multilateral community engagement. MLFTC takes action by bringing people and ideas together to increase the capabilities of individual educators and the performance of education systems.

Aligned with ASU's commitment to justice, equity, diversity and inclusion, MLFTC is committed to advancing systemic equity in our curricula, programming and institutional relationships. The college's core value of Principled Innovation connects individual decision making to the pursuit of systemic equity.
