Job Description	The Gary K. Herberger Young Scholars Academy is seeking an Administrative Assistant to serve as the front desk receptionist and attendance monitor for the middle and high school. This position will execute a variety of office administrative and/or secretarial support activities, such as composing replies to correspondence on own initiative, interpreting and explaining established policies and procedures in response to inquiries from a variety of sources, summarizing reports and information to facilitate review by supervisor, and investigating, evaluating and resolving issues within scope of position. This position will also maintain official records and digital files in the student information system, and handle non-routine situations by determining the approach or action to take, while following relevant guidelines, procedures, policies and practices. This is an in-person position, located at ASU’s West Valley campus. No remote option is available. The Gary K. Herberger Young Scholars Academy is a learning environment designed for highly gifted students in grades 7-12 located on the Arizona State University West Valley campus. Funded by an endowment from the Herberger Family and supported by ASU, the Gary K. Herberger Young Scholars Academy was founded to address the needs of academically and intellectually gifted students in the Phoenix area. The Herberger Academy accepts qualified students who have completed the 6th-grade curriculum and are 11 years of age by the student start date. Designed for gifted students who thrive in a highly engaging learning environment, the academy personalizes students’ education by merging individual academic talents and interests with advanced college preparatory coursework and mentorship opportunities. Students at the academy experience a broad-minded, paradigm-shifting education. Herberger Academy scholars engage with dedicated instructors in a small and caring community, with the resources available at a major research university. Upon enrolling in the academy, students first become immersed in an integrated middle school-level curriculum at an accelerated pace. They then complete high school credits while exploring and pursuing their intellectual interests through Cambridge coursework and connections made accessible at Arizona State University.
