

Faculty Associate, Environmental Education Program Pool Position # 178384

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton College for Teaching and Learning Innovation (MLFC) and the Division for Advancing Education Policy, Practice and Leadership invites applications to establish a pool for Faculty Associates in the Environmental Education Program for the 2026-2027 academic year. Successful candidates will teach in-person or online Environmental Education certificate courses at the undergrad or graduate level, prepare course materials such as PowerPoints, activities, etc., on the canvas shell and/or in person, evaluate and grade student work, provide constructive feedback and assist students with academic success. The Environmental Education program welcomes applications from candidates who align with ASU's charter and are committed to inclusive excellence and student success. The successful candidate will also advance ASU's Design Aspirations through teaching and service.

ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.

Successful candidates will demonstrate throughout their materials how their teaching will contribute to the fulfillment of this charter.

Faculty Associate positions are one semester (7.5 or 15 weeks), non-benefits-eligible, and fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment. Individuals hired as Faculty Associates may not hold multiple, non-benefits-eligible appointments at Arizona State University. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

This recruitment is to establish a part-time hiring pool for temporary and semester appointments. Applications are considered for the current year only. Applicants who are not hired are encouraged to reapply for the next posting.

Essential Duties: This position serves as a lead instructor and includes teaching environmental education certificate courses during class times (F2F) or online, conducting field labs, grading, managing the course's Canvas (learning management system) page, and establishing warm and supportive relationships with students through class, office hours, emails, and meetings as needed. If graders are assigned to the course, the lead instructor will organize the division of students between the lead instructor and grader(s). The lead instructor will oversee and communicate course expectations to the grader(s) assigned to the course.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's Degree or higher in Environmental Education or related field at time of appointment
- 2 years of teaching or related experience in environmental education (PreK-16 grade)

Desired Qualifications:

- Evidence of completion of ASU Environmental Education certification is required if degree in is a related field, at time of hire or within first year.
- Terminal Degree in Environmental Education or related field
- Experience working collaboratively at least once in a team environment
- Experience planning and/or implementing curriculum at least once (in any learning context)
- At least one semester of experience teaching at the university-level post-secondary or other adult education setting
- At least one example of learning (e.g., coursework, professional development, trainings) in issues of equity (racial, dis/ability) in educational contexts
- At least one year of experience working in collaborative environments within and across disciplines
- At least one semester of experience using course management systems such as Canvas or Blackboard and digital tools like Zoom
- At least one year of experience teaching in digital environments
- Afternoon and evening availability

About the College

ASU's Mary Lou Fulton College for Teaching and Learning Innovation creates knowledge, mobilizes people, and takes action to improve education. Nationally recognized as a leader in teacher preparation, leadership development and scholarly research, Mary Lou Fulton College for Teaching and Learning Innovation prepares over 8,000 educators annually. MLFC faculty create knowledge by drawing from a wide range of academic disciplines to gain insight into important questions about the process of learning, the practice of teaching and the effects of education policy. MLFC mobilizes people through bachelor's, master's and doctoral degree programs, through non-degree professional development programs and through socially embedded, multilateral community engagement. MLFC takes action by bringing people and ideas together to increase the capabilities of individual educators and the performance of education systems.

Aligned with ASU's charter, MLFC is committed to advancing inclusive excellence in our curricula, programming and institutional relationships.

For more information about the College, please visit our website.

Application Deadline and Procedures

The initial application deadline is March 16, 2026. Applications will continue to be accepted on a rolling basis for a reserve pool. Applications in the reserve pool may then be reviewed, in the order in which they were received, on an ongoing basis as hiring needs dictate until the position is filled. Only electronic applications will be reviewed.

To apply, submit the following:

- Letter of application/interest that speaks to how you meet any required/desired qualifications of the position
- Curriculum vitae with contact information, including telephone number and email address
- Contact information for three professional references; phone and email

Apply Now: <https://apply.interfolio.com/181944>

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

A background check is required for employment. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law.

(See <https://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html> and <https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/>.)

In compliance with federal law, ASU prepares an annual report on campus security and fire safety programs and resources. ASU's Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is available online at <https://www.asu.edu/police/PDFs/ASU-Clery-Report.pdf> You may request a hard copy of the report by contacting the ASU Police Department at 480-965-3456.